THE RIGHT VIEW

The duty of the press of the State should be to advocate all measures that will promote the general welfare of the State. The Nevada Tribune comes out in an article condemning Reno for not patronizing the races at Carson, and thus reciprocating what Carson did for the State Fair, and goes on and says that "the chances are that another year the Reno Fair will receive but little aid from either residents of the Capital or local newspapers." This is narrow talk for a broad minded and enterprising community like Carson. Were the State Fair a Reno or individual enterprise, we would expect many Carsonites to show their teeth and growl, but it's being a State institution, intended to promote the business interest of Carson City and the whole State, the Tribune can't afford to let local jealousies cause it to play the dog in the manger. The State Fair is a creature of the State, is managed by the agents of the State, and Reno, on account of its central location and railroad connections, is the chosen place for holding it. Not only Reno, but the managers of the fair feel under many obligations to the press for the favorable notices, and work done before and since the Fair, and to everybody who patronized it either as exhibitors or visitors, and will endeavor to make the next Fair equal to, if not more attractive than the last.

Virginia Politics

The Philadelphia Times (independent) says of the election prospects in Virginia. While the Democrats have been indulging in a noisy, brass band kind of campaign for the Governorship, Mahone has been carrying on a still hunt for the Legislature and United States Senatorship. Careful correspondents incline to concede that Fitzhugh Lee will be elected Governor, but the Legislature may be carried by Mahone. A little more hard work by the Virginians will prevent the disgrace of Mahone's return to the Senate.

The war record of the Iowa Democratic candidate for Governor does not please many of his own party. It seems that he was drafted, and being at the time Supervisor of his county, he voted to pay himself a bounty for the substitute he hired to take his place. That isn't exactly the kind of man they want in the gubernatorial chair.

A scheme for free trade between the United States and Mexico, the United States to pay annually to Mexico $15,000,000, is being talked up in the Mexican congress. The European mercantile interests are opposed to the project, taking the ground that such a treaty would destroy all European importing business.

At the recent annual meeting of the Bank of California and the Nevada Bank the net earnings for the year were reported at $411,380 and $504,325 respectively. Both banks paid $300,000 in dividends to stockholders, or at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum.

The Chicago Times has a Washington dispatch claiming that Senator Eustis has declared open war on the President, and that Senators Beck and Vance will do nothing to assist in securing the confirmation of the President's appointments.

The Pacific Iron and Nail Company has made another advance in the price of nails. The raise this time is 15c per keg, making 35c increase in the past 30 days.

McLean, editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, concedes that the Republicans will have a majority on joint ballot in the Ohio Legislature.

Wilson S. Bissell, President Cleveland's former law partner, denies the rumor that he is to be appointed Governor of Dakota.

Senator Logan will enter the canvass in New York.

THE NEW YORK CAMPAIGN.

Veteran Democrats Who Will Vote for Davenport.

The overwhelming defeat of the Ohio Democracy has encouraged and stimulated the New York Republican State Committee and the party leaders to great zeal in behalf of Messrs Davenport and Carr and a Republican victory seems assured. Democrats who cannot swallow Tweed's partner, Governor Hill, say they may vote for Davenport and probably will, rather than give Hill aid by not voting. A veteran Democrat, who writes to the press, attacking Hill, says that he shall for the first time, this fall cast a Republican ballot. It was asserted positively at Republican headquarters here that a committee had gone to Washington with the authority or sanction of the Democratic campaign managers, to induce President Cleveland to display a greater interest in the canvass of his own State. W. H. Brown, of the Daily News, was a member of the deputation. Their object was to show Cleveland that he is a part of the Democratic party, and, as one of the Democratic workers put it, "if Cleveland is going to loaf comfortably around the banks of Salt river and see the party canoe drift on its fatal voyage into obscurity without swimming out to it with a shore-line, he will find himself hereafter left alone in the wilderness."

The Motto on the Two-Dollar U. S. Notes.

Speaking about the origin of the device for the two dollar United States note, Comptroller of the Currency Cannon related the following interesting story. Among the intimate friends of Secretary Chase was Joseph Patterson, the well-known bank President of Philadelphia. Mr. Patterson was a frequent visitor at Mr. Chase's house, and in fact was one of the Secretary's closest advisers during the days when the credit of the nation was somewhat impaired. One night, at dinner, the question of a motto for the forthcoming two-dollar bill, which was to be adorned by the Secretary's likeness, was under discussion. Some thought a pious phrase of some kind or other ought to be selected, and various Scripture selections were suggested by the guests. Finally the Secretary turned to Mr. Patterson and said: "Mr. Patterson what do you suggest as a motto?" "You know" said Mr. Patterson, "that I do not believe in mottoes, but seeing that you have asked me, I do think of a verse of scripture that would be very appropriate." "What is it?" asked the Secretary interested. "It is a verse in the Acts of the Apostles, which says: 'Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have give I thee.'" The Secretary immediately changed the subject. He was evidently not pleased.

Exceptions to the Rule

The terms of service of Commodore J. G. Walker, as Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, and of Commodore Montgomery Sickard, as Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance in the Navy Department, expired yesterday. Both officers will, however, be reappointed for another term of four years. Secretary Whitney is in favor of rotation among naval officers, but these cases are notable exceptions to the rule on account of the excellent service rendered by them and their entire mastery of the duties of their respective bureaus. Commodore Walker is next to the Secretary in the management of the affairs of the Department. He has charge of the detailing of all officers, and his services could not well be dispensed with. Commodore Sickard's knowledge of ordnance matters is considered invaluable in connection with the matter of arming the projected new ships for the navy.

The State census of Massachusetts gives a population of 1,941,456, a gain of nearly 300,000 since 1870. The State census of Iowa gives a population of 1,853,980. This is an increase of 129,365 over the United States census of 1880. It is noticed that the increase of population has been in the cities, while in many rural districts the inhabitants have diminished in number.

Encouraging American Enterprise.

Although it was given out a few weeks ago that London bankers and capitalists had undertaken to furnish capital, labor and material for railroad enterprises which are to be undertaken in China, there is no chance for their shutting out entirely American enterprise. Nathaniel Mackay, who is known as a large contractor for enterprises both in this and other countries, has returned from Washington, whither he had gone for the purpose of securing proper credentials of instruction from the State Department for an agent whom he proposed to send abroad at once. He was agreeably surprised, in view of what has been said about Secretary Bayard's crustiness, to find that Bayard was disposed to do whatever he could to further American interests abroad, and in giving him the necessary introduction for which he asked to Secretary Denby, he said he should be glad always to do anything he could to encourage the development of American interests abroad and to assist American merchants in their efforts to compete with foreign countries and with the people of other nationalities. Mr. Mackay was much pleased with Secretary Bayard's reception, and his agent will leave for Hongkong in a very few days.

The Alta says

At the next meeting of Congress the only representative in the Senate of the great Democratic vote west of the Missouri river will be Senator Fair of Nevada. The constitution puts the Senate in relations of special participation and confidence with the Administration, and inasmuch as party Government is contemplated by our policy, this relation must be close with Democratic members of the Senate. Mr. Fair will represent nearly a half million of Democratic votes which have no other voice than his in the greatest legislative body in the world. It is good to know that so great a responsibility rests upon great shoulders.

The action of the Board of Regents in increasing the price of a portion of the State Lands more than reflects the benefits conferred to the State and its people by the wholesome provisions of the new Land Act passed by the last Legislature. The next Legislature will in all probability fix the rate at the uniform price of $1.25 per acre. It should be made an issue at the next election and the conventions of both political parties should instruct their legislative nominees to that effect.—Times Review

EQUALIZATION NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT AT
a regular meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of Washoe county, Nevada, held on the 24th day of September, 1893,
said Commissioners sitting as a Board of Equalization, upon complaint duly made and verified therein, caused citations to issue as follows:

1.—To W. B. Toddhunter, requiring him, the said W. B. Toddhunter, to be and appear before said Board on the 30th day of September, 1893,
and show cause why the number of stock attached to him for the year 1893, should not be raised from 1,500 to 3,000, and the value thereof from $2,500 to $5,000. That on the 30th day of September, 1893, the valuation of thereof was continued until Monday, October 5, 1893, at which time the Board proceeded to consider the matter, and no appearance being made or objections filed therein, the number of stock cattle assessed to him was raised from 1,500 to 3,000, and the value thereof, $2,500,
was added to the assessed valuation of his said
property, thus raising the assessed valuation
of said personal property from $2,500 to $5,000.

2.—To George D. Winters, citing him to appear before the Board on the 30th day of September, 1893, and to show cause why the valuation of personal property assessed to him for the year 1893, should not be raised from $10, 930 to $25,930. That on the 30th day of September, 1893, the consideration thereof was continued until Monday, October 5, 1893, at which time the Board proceeded to the consideration of the matter, and no appearance
being made or objections filed therein, the valuation of his personal property was raised as follows, to wit: 60 head of horses from $10 per head to $20 per head, and 2,100 head of sheep returned by him was raised to 9,000
head; thus raising the assessed valuation of his sheep from $8,000 to $18,000, and a total raise of value of personal property from $6,430
to $16,000.
